

41% of Americans and 66% of Millennials cannot say what Auschwitz was.

— New York Times, 4/12/2018

So many were lost.
Their stories don't have to be.

For the first time ever, millions of records and images connected to the Holocaust are searchable online and available for everyone to explore.

Search our collection to start uncovering the stories of family members who faced one of the worst atrocities the world has ever known.

Preserving history, together.

Ancestry® is eternally grateful to our partners at Arolsen Archives for entrusting us with this incalculably important collection. Arolsen Archives is an organization dedicated to documenting National Socialist persecution and the lives of the liberated survivors.

Lists of Those Persecuted 1939-1947

Registers of people living in Germany who were persecuted by public institutions and corporations. Some of these records include details on those who died, including burial information.

“For the dead and the living, we must bear witness.”

– Elie Wiesel | Nobel Laureate and Holocaust Survivor
